HOWLS FROM THE ACTING GM:-

RUN 487 30th January, 2010 –

As our GM was missing in action (probably held up by a Thaipussy) as it was Thaipussem weekend he was not able to leave his house, I needed to step in because our VGM was afraid off the traffic and called me the day before already if I could take care of the red box,

Leaving my house in Tanjung Bungah 4.15pm I reached the run site at 4.45 well before the start of the run. (who said there is a lot of traffic???)

Already a pack of hounds had assembled at the run site and plenty of them were eager to pay their subs to me. Some of them queried me “where is the GM “ but I could not answer them as I could only guess that the above statement is trough.

41 runners and 3 guests managed to get to the runsite without any problem.

Doing the normal announcements the bunny off the day send us away up to the temple for a short to medium run.

HOUNDS TALE:-

Date: 30th January, 2010
Runsites: Falim
Hares:- Meg Ryan
Scribe:- Mini Sausage

As nobody was there to write the burst here a small write up how the run went.

After passing the temple and following the trail Fancy pants set a few weeks back we came to the point where fancy pants run had a check but this time there was no check at all and the paper skirted further around the hill. Good Year and Mini Sausage were leading the pack and they had sometimes difficulties to find the paper as in the bare sunshine with all the dry leaves it hard to see the difference.

The trail went gradually up and after a while it veered down to the left to end with a nice circle behind a cliff. The circle was placed so nicely that we decided to hide our self behind the cliff and let the whole pack come down to see the circle. I think they all smelled already the prank the FRB's wanted to impose on them as it took a while before they came down. At the end we had some 15 runners hiding behind the cliff when Fancy Pants came across and revealed the secret to the back runners.

The circle was fast broken by the FRB's and off course our hash dog Anchor Lim. The run had a good on up from there and once reaching the rig it was a nice run down the hill to finish in just one hour.

All runners came out well before the dark and enjoyed the beers served by our stand in beerman as Sammy was doing business in town.

Good run and good food. Well done bunny

DOWN DOWNS

Welcome off the guests Scott, Jane and Ooi Boon.

First on ice Doreena and Jehn for not putting their hash card back after the run. The acting GM was held- for performing the circle as there were still runners "out" in the jungle.

As our guests took out all their valuables at the moment I welcomed them they were actually so eager to be cooled down by the icing that I needed to put them on ice. They did it in true hash style bare bottom.

Charge from the floor brought Doreena to the front icing the bunny or not looking after the “lost” runners.

Last on ice the hare and the bunny for an excellent run.

JOKES AND OTHER STUFF

"Tough Talking Cowboy"

A cowboy rode into town and stopped at the saloon for a drink. Unfortunately, the locals always had a habit of picking on newcomers. When he finished, he found his horse had been stolen.

He comes back into the bar, handily flips his gun into the air, catches it above his head without even looking and fires a shot into the ceiling. "Who stole my horse?" he yelled with surprising forcefulness.

No one answered.

"I'm gonna have another beer and if my horse ain't back outside by the time I'm finished, I'm gonna do what I dun back in Texas and I don't want to have to do what I dun back in Texas!"

Some of the locals shifted restlessly.

He had another beer, walked outside, and his horse was back! He saddled up and started to ride out of town.

The bartender wandered out of the bar and asked, "Say partner, what happened in Texas?"

The cowboy turned back and said, "I had to walk home!"
